Summit May Tackle Saigon-Cong Talks

HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson's and South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu's formal talks apparently will embrace possible direct Saigon-Viet Cong negotiations and a total bombing halt in the North.

In advance of today's first formal meeting at the hilltop headquarters of the U.S. Pacific Command, Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford said he avoided those two topics during his Saigon visit earlier in the week "in order to leave that up to Thieu and President Johnson."

Clifford talked to newsmen Thursday at Hickam Field as he waited with Johnson to greet Thieu's chartered airliner.

Johnson, in welcoming the South Vietnamese leader, touched on the peace search under way in Paris and offered these words of reassurance to his visitor:

"Mr. President, our pledge to help your people defeat aggression stands firm against all obstacles and against any deception."

Thieu, dwarfed by the U.S. chief executive, responded by saying he looked forward to discussions of "accomplishments as well as problems that lie before us." He said he hoped for "steps toward peace and freedom for Vietnam and Southeast Asia."

After Johnson's arrival in Hawaii Thursday afternoon, White House officials learned about a published report from Saigon that Clifford, while there, had persuaded Thieu to make two major "concessions"—to go along with a total bombing halt in the North and to agree to direct talks with Viet Cong representatives at broadened peace negotiations to be proposed at some point in the future.

Tom Johnson, assistant White House press secretary, quickly quoted Clifford as saying, "The report is wholly inaccurate."

WORK ON SECURITY measures proceeds at Memphis on the Shelby County Criminal Courts and Jail Building to which James Earl Ray was returned from England today to face charges of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Steel plates are being welded to the third floor windows of the building's jail section as an extra security precaution. Ray Returned To Memphis For Trial

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray, handcuffed and wearing what appeared to be a bullet-proof vest, was whisted into the Shelby County jail before dawn today to await trial on a charge of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray was placed in his cell at the jail at 4:34 a.m. CDT, 46 minutes after he arrived at the nearby Memphis Naval Air Station aboard a U.S. Air Force Boeing jet transport from London. He had left London about midnight—6 p.m. CDT—so that the entire trip took about 10½ hours.

Couldn't Be Seen

From the Navy base, a blue-and-white prison van, surrounded by a half-dozen police cars and an equal number of motorcycles, roared into the parking lot behind the jail building at 4:29 a.m. CDT.

No newsman was allowed to see Ray, but Sheriff William Morris distributed photographs of the prisoner showing him dressed in what the sheriff told a news conference was "protective gear." He appeared to be dressed in a bullet-proof vest and he was handcuffed to a heavy leather belt.

The sheriff said Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle has been chosen to hear the murder trial, but "no courtroom has been selected for the trial yet." He added that no date for arraignment on the murder indictment has been set.

Tried In Building?

There was speculation that Ray may be tried in a basement courtroom at the jail-courthouse building, so that he would never have to leave the jail.

Judge Battle already has issued his first order in the case, the sheriff said. This forbids cameras, tape recorders or other similar devices from the courthouse-jail building, its grounds or sidewalk surrounding the structure—and forbids anyone connected with the case from giving interviews or otherwise discussing the case outside the courthouse or with anyone but lawyers connected with the case.

As photographers took Morris' picture during the news conference, the sheriff went on to explain that the "no publicity" order would go into effect immediately after the news conference.

Guards Precede

The van carrying Ray to the jail was preceded by another police car loaded with officers who immediately jumped out and joined a security guard of deputies who had taken up stations across the parking lot driveway 11 minutes before the prisoner arrived.

One other car, carrying Criminal Court Judge John Coulton, had driven into the parking lot a short time earlier. There was no indication why Coulton came to the jail.

Ray's departure from London's Wandsworth jail was as shrounded in secrecy as was his arrival in Memphis. It could not be determined where he boarded the jet in England, nor who accompanied him.

Ray's American lawyer, Arthur J. Hanes of Birmingham, Ala., was refused permission to speak to Ray once he was turned over to U.S. Authorities in London. Hanes' request to accompany Ray on the flight was denied.

The way was cleared to return Ray when Britain dropped charges of entering the country on a forged passport and carrying an unlicensed gun. Ray had abandoned his fight against extradition earlier in the week, and the British Home Office the extradition order was signed Thursday night.

Ray was arrested in London June 8—two months and four days after King was killed by a single bullet as he stood on a motel balcony here.

Oil Found In Alaskan Arctic Excites State

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. Walter J. Hickel sees the discovery of oil in Alaska's Arctic region as a key unlocking the state's vast potential and a stabilizer of its economy.

"It's tremendous," the governor kept saying Thursday after hearing that reserves estimated by oil experts at 5 to 10 billion barrels had been found in the Prudhoe Bay area along Alaska's Arctic coast.

The Arctic Slope is an expanse of endless tundra inhabited only by caribou, wolves and an occasional roving band of Eskimo hunters.

The area, some 390 miles north of Fairbanks, is a region long eyed with anticipation by petroleum geologists.

The U.S. Navy's Petroleum Reserve No. 4 lies to the west of the Atlantic Richfield-Humble discovery, in an area where the temperature merely toys with the freezing point—even during the long summer days when the Arctic sun never gets below the horizon.

Degolyer and MacNaughton, a Dallas oil consulting firm, said the new discovery has the potential of developing into one of the world's largest fields.

Located on a 90,000-acre block of federally leased land, the new discovery apparently confirms what petroleum geologists have long thought, that the Arctic Slope is a vast storehouse of oil and gas.

Gov. Hickel feels the oil income from the huge federal holdings on the north slope could be used to meet native demands for $500 million to drop claims blocking the state's efforts to select the 103 million acres promised by the statehood act.

He also sees it as possibly leading to the elimination of state income taxes, which brought in $31 million in the last fiscal year.

Can Lecture On Issues But . . .

Congress Rebuffed Over Fortas' Legal Opinions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Abe Fortas has told Senate critics the Constitution allows him to lecture and write about issues that come before the Supreme Court, but forbids him to answer questions from members of Congress about the same matters.

Fortas repeated this theme over and over Thursday before the Senate Judiciary Committee as he testified for the third day on his qualifications to succeed Earl Warren as chief justice of the United States.

It was by far the roughest meeting yet for Fortas. But prospects were that today's session would be the last for him, opening the way for committee questioning of Homer Thornberry, named by Johnson to fill the vacancy created by Fortas' elevation from justice to chief justice.

Fortas did tell the committee he was opposed to Communists holding defense jobs or teaching school and that he approved of Congress' right to investigate subversion.

And, he said, "there is under our system of government no place for lawlessness or violence."

But when pressed by Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., to relate these beliefs to recent Supreme Court decisions in which he took part, Fortas drew the line.

"My constitutional responsibility requires me, however unpleasant it may be, to decline to answer questions of the kind you have propounded," Fortas said.

"I regret it. I repeat, I regret it deeply," he added.

Fortas said "judges . . . may not be held to answer before

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas denied today that "I transmitted the President's ire" in calling a business executive to protest an estimate of Vietnam war costs in excess of the administration's publicly disclosed figure.

For the first time, Fortas identified the business leader to whom he made the call as Ralph Lazarus of Cincinnati, board chairman of Federated Department Stores.

Nursing Home Patients Face Eviction Notice

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — Thousands of medicaid patients in Michigan nursing homes faced possible eviction following dismissal of a suit brought by five Detroit area nursing homes to prevent what they claim is a cut in state-federal aid.

The suit was thrown out of Berrien Circuit Court Thursday by Wayne County Circuit Judge Nathan J. Kaufman on a motion by State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley's office. Judge Kaufman was sitting on the Berrien bench in place of Berrien Circuit Court Judge Chester J. Byrns.

The nursing homes and the Michigan Nursing Home Assn. filed suit to stop $11 and $14 rates paid by the state effective July 1. The old rates ranged from $10 to $16 a day depending on patient condition.

Basil Boyce of Pontiac, a vice president of the association, said the homes may chose a notify a "great number" of the 19,000 over-65 medicaid patients that they no longer have quarters.

In a statement, the association said home operators may "insist the state remove medicaid patients because they cannot care for them adequately on $11 per day."

Judge Kaufman granted the dismissal motion saying he thinks both sides and even the governor were "crazy" to let negotiations deteriorate to a point where the elderly could be evicted.

Asst. State Atty. Gen. Milton Firestone and an attorney for the plaintiffs, Wallace M. Handler, agreed their respective sides were willing to meet and talk but Firestone said the state wants nursing home cost-profit figures and Handler said the state already has them.

The court action Thursday started as a hearing on whether an injunction against the state should be ordered and followed a session last Friday in Detroit before Judge Kaufman and negotiations Monday in Lansing between the state and nursing homes.

In the suit, the association called the new medicaid rates arbitrary and capricious and claimed the state was violating a contract where state and homes together negotiate rates annually. Suit was filed June 28 in Wayne County against the State of Michigan, and the state departments of social welfare and health.

The suit asked Judge Kaufman to declare that nursing homes were entitled to "reasonable and customary charges" over the set rate of payment and to determine whether the state could be prevented from enforcing the new rates.

Plaintiff nursing homes include Dearborn Heights Convalescent Home; University Convalescent & Nursing Home, Inc.; Marian Manor Medical Center, Inc.; Royal Nursing Center, and Southgate Conavalescent & Nursing, Inc.

The state claims Michigan has 420 licensed nursing homes reportedly with 70,000 to 85,000 patients.

House Rebuffs LBJ; Slashes Foreign Aid

Czechs Seek Backing From Red Nations

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's liberal Communist regime will hold talks with leaders of other European Communist parties Saturday, the official news agency CTK reported today. It did not identify the parties, but the meetings would presumably allow the Czechoslovaks to make a face-to-face defense of their reform program.

Soviet Intervenes

The announcement came as the Soviet Union was pledging help to Czechoslovak hard-liners, including the 35,000 man People's Militia, an armed force that has backed Antonin Novotny, the ousted Stalinist ruler. Liberals here have demanded the militia's dissolution.

It also coincided with an East German exhortation to Czechoslovak old-liners to "Boldly counterattack the revisionist and anti-Socialist forces."

The brief CTK dispatch was the first word on such a meeting following rumors that party chief Alexander Dubcek would meet with the Soviet party's President - general, Leonid I. Brezhnev, in the near future. President Tito of Yugoslavia also was expected for a visit here, presumably following the Dubcek-Brezhnev meeting.

Defend Position

The announcement came shortly after the Czechoslovak party's Central Committee went into session to discuss a decision by the Dubcek leadership to defend to the end the nation's liberalization process. Prague has rejected the Soviet idea of holding a summit conference on Czechoslovakia, but voiced readiness to discuss its new course in bilateral talks.

The French, Italian, British, Belgian and Austrian Communists have joined the regimes of Romania and Yugoslavia in expressions of confidence in the new Czechoslovak course.

Scorpion Hunt Is Concentrated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Specially equipped Navy vessels hunting the lost nuclear submarine Scorpion are searching with underwater cameras a "highly suspect" area southwest of the Azores, a Navy source said today.

"We haven't found her," the source added.

He described the intensity search area 450 miles from the Azores as having the "highest probability" of being the last resting place of the submarine.

When it sent its last radio message May 21, it was about 250 miles south of the Azores, on its way to Norfolk, Va., from duty in the Mediterranean with a crew of 99.

Labor Council Drops Labor Day

MUSKEGON (AP) — A traditional Labor Day celebration in Muskegon appears in jeopardy this year with announcement by the Muskegon Area Labor Council that it is dropping its Labor Day celebration.

The Western Michigan News, a publication of the council, said Thursday the decision was reached by the council's executive board "in view of the fact that UAW local unions of the community have withdrawn their support of the celebration."

In past years, the celebration has included talent shows, an ox roast and a beauty contest. by union headquarters.

Ike Backs Nixon

Humphrey Will Seek Kennedy As Ticket Mate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is banking on his endorsement for the Republican presidential nomination by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to pay dividends both before and after the GOP national convention.

On the mend at Walter Reed Army Hospital from a heart attack, Eisenhower left his sickbed Thursday to declare his support for Nixon, who served under him as vice president for eight years in the 1950s.

Terming the endorsement a "great lift" in the contest for the GOP nomination, Nixon said he believes it may make Nixon men of some convention delegates who haven't made up their minds.

HHH Woos Ted

And it will be no less an asset in the campaign proper, after the nomination is his, Nixon said.

A major development in the Democratic race was reported today by the New York Times, which said Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, strongest contender for the presidential nomination, has indicated he will try to enlist Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts as his running mate.

Humphrey was quoted in the interview as saying he will meet with Kennedy in the next few days.

He said he is aware of reports Kennedy would neither seek nor accept the vice presidential nomination, but added: "I have no reason to believe that. I hope it's not true."

McCarthy Challenges

Kennedy is the brother of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, who was battling Humphrey for the presidential nomination until he was slain in June.

Humphrey has been off the campaign trial since last week because of a bout with influenza but aides said he has booked numerous out-of-town appearances starting Monday.

He was challenged to debate Thursday by his rival for the nomination, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

McCarthy In Dixie

McCarthy charged in Atlanta the vice president's statements on the war in Vietnam "offer the same analysis and the same explanations we have heard from him the past three and a half years."

McCarthy drew good crowds as he campaigned in punishing heat in Atlanta and Raleigh and Charlotte, N.C.

Another candidate out in the sun was Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, Nixon's principal opponent in the GOP nomination fight. Frequently without a coat, Rockefeller toured Ohio, considered a pivotal state in the nomination contest.

Early Vote For Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A steady stream of United Steelworkers voted in Lorain, Ohio, today on whether they want to strike the basic steel industry Aug.1.

First in the nation to make a decision, the local was expected to come out overwhelmingly in favor of a strike, local officials said.

"They're making no secret about their ballot," said George A. Pashkevich, vice president of the local. "They're holding them up for everybody to see."

First Time It Has Been Cut Under $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring a plea by President Johnson, has slashed another $370-million-plus from the foreign aid authorization bill, leaving $1.994 billion for the program.

It was the first time the authorization has fallen blow $2 billion and despite the deep cuts and the possibility of more trimming when the money is actually appropriated, supporters were considered lucky that the bill survived at all.

There had been moves in the House to clamp a moratorium on all foreign aid.

Sent To Senate

The $1.994-billion bill for the fiscal year which started last July 1 was approved by 228-184 Thursday night and sent to the Senate.

The 44-vote margin was a far cry from the eight votes by which a $2.67 billion authorization was approved last year when Congress actually appropriated $2.2 billion.

Johnson had appealed to Congress not to cut any more from the bill which was slashed nearly $600 million by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Johnson originally asked Congress for $2.92 billion.

Planes For Israel

A small group of Republicans, lead by Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, had set their sights on cutting another $400 million on the House floor. They almost made it, reducing the total by some $370.8 million, as a late 267-150 roll call overturned earlier defeats for some cuts.

The House also wrote in a directive for the President to negotiate with Israel for the sale of 50 F4 Phantom Jet fighters which backers claimed is necessary for peace in the Middle East. They pointed to the Soviet Union's supplying jet fighters and bombers to Egypt.

By top-heavy margins the House insisted that no funds under the military assistance program be given to less developed countries for the purchase of such sophisticated weapons as jet planes or missiles. If these nations buy the systems with their own funds, the President is directed to withhold economic aid in a like amount.

Hoholik Lauds Copper Range On Diversification

By E. O. (Buck) ERICKSON
Of Panax Newspapers

HOUGHTON — Ground was broken Thursday afternoon in nearby South Range for the construction of the Copper Range Co.'s new $2 million wood fabrication complex.

It was hailed as a milestone in the diversification of Copper Country industry by an assembly of more than 200 Upper Peninsula business and government leaders.

Speaking at the site under sunny skies after torrential rains in the area the night before, Dr. James Boyd, New York, president of Copper Range Co., said, "we have all the necessary elements for the success of this new venture." Boyd was the principal speaker at the plant site ceremony and also at the following reception dinner at the Douglas House here.

Expressing optimism and enthusiasm he told his audiences "there is a ready market for the furniture components we expect to manufacture. There are 185,000 acres of excellent woodlands to which we are applying sound management practices so they will produce fine northern hardwoods in perpetuity."

Owns 185,000 Acres

The New York mining executive joined seven other U.P. industrialists and officials with shovels in the ground-breaking at the 8-acre site a half mile north of South Range.

The complex will manufacture pre-finished components for the furniture and other woodworking industries. It will be composed of a sawmill, lumber drying facilities and a furniture - components fabrication plant. Between 125 and 135 will be employed at the plant and woodlands. Copper Range presently owns 185,000 acres of woodlands in five U.P. counties.

In addition to the new South Range plant, Copper Range operates the copper mining and refining facility in White Pine and the Copper Range Railroad. Its investment in the Upper Peninsula is estimated at about $200 million. The company is the area's second-largest employer.

Welcomes Industry

Walker L. Cisler, Detroit, board chairman of Detroit Edison Co. and co-chairman of Operation Action-U.P., was toastmaster of the Douglas House dinner. He read a telegram from Gov. George Romney in which Romney congratulated Copper Range on the building of its new U.P. plant.

Among the dinner speakers was Frank S. Hoholik, president of the Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. He traced the importance of the Upper Peninsula's underground and surface resources in building the entire state and disproved the popular belief that the early lumbermen of the U.P. were unconscionable destroyers of forests.

"While some of the abuses were evident," he said, "Michigan's early lumbermen provided the necessary materials to build farms and factories of a growing midwest." He summed up his welcome to Copper Range in the wood processing industry with: "It is a great day for the Upper Peninsula when mining interests become involved in forestry products. Today is such a day!"

Organized Crime In State Worried

FLINT (AP) — Leaders of organized crime in Michigan are "deeply concerned" by intensified police efforts aimed against them, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said Thursday.

Law enforcement officers are "finally beginning to give up their 'see no evil, hear no evil' attitude toward organized crime," Kelley said at graduation ceremonies of the new Genesee County organized crime and antiracketeering force.

"HAYWIRE," a Manistique and Lake Superior Railroad train, completed its last run Thursday and ended a 70 year existence. The train has been running on a 120-day extension granted by the ICC on March 17. The M & LS is owned by the Ann Arbor Railroad.

'Haywire' Makes Last Run

By BARBARA JOHNSON

MANISTIQUE — When the "Haywire" left Manistique at 2:30 Thursday afternoon on its last run north to Doty, four miles beyond Shingleton, an era which began more than 70 years ago ended.

With Engineer Orville Paradise, Brakeman William Miller, Conductor Eldon Schneider, retired Superintendent George Stephens, and retired section foreman Erlind Anderson aboard, the Manistique & Lake Superior train hauled one car of wood and four empties to Shingleton where it took on six more cars of wood and four empties and then proceeded to Doty.

The single-engine, one-caboose "Haywire" began operations over 70 years ago and in its heyday hauled more than 40 loaded flatcars of timber from the Manistique River to Steuben and also carried one passenger coach. Numerous hunters and fishermen used the line and were dropped off at their favorite haunts along the track in the now-Hiawatha National Forest.

Charles Blair, 85, of 119 N. 5th St., who began working for the M&LS in 1904 and retired in 1951, said the "Haywire" got its name because the tracks were always in disrepair and the section workers insisted the tracks were made of hay with an overcast of wire. Blair remembers when two trains collided on a bridge over the Manistique River in 1905. Fred "Bronco" Fitch immortalized the occasion by composing a song about the "Haywire" tracks.

As logging operations in this area declined, so did the railroad. Last year the Ann Arbor Raidroad, owner of the M&LS, petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon the line.

A business and industrial group in the Manistique area organized to stop the abandonment, scheduled for March 17, and were granted a 120-day delay. The ICC has refused to extend the abandonment as the railroad has been operating in the red for the past several years and its facilities are not being used by the shippers. All eight employes of the M&LS have been offered jobs by the Ann Arbor Railroad at other locations.

With the passing of the "Haywire" the Soo Line is the only freight train serving the Manistique area. That line has three trains which arrive every day except Sunday from Sault Ste. Marie and haul pulpwood and other commodities. Eight employes of the Soo Line are stationed in Manistique.

Wallace Party Meets In Esky

DETROIT (AP) — The American Independent Party will hold its Michigan convention Aug. 23-24 in Dearborn, it was announced Thursday. The convention was originally planned for Lansing but Wayne County chairman Wayne Lee said it was decided to move to the Detroit suburb.

The party was founded by former Alabama Gov. George Wallace, who will appear on Michigan ballots as its presidential candidate.

Lee and co-directors of the Wallace campaign in Michigan will hold a public meeting at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Pioneer Motor Inn, Escanaba, to seek election of delegates and alternates from Menominee, Delta and Schoolcraft counties to the Dearborn convention of the American Independent Party.

Jaycees Planning Gwinn Area Unit

MARQUETTE — Region 1 of the Michigan Jaycees will conduct an officers' orientation meeting at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base Saturday, July 27, at 1 p.m. in the Officers' Club, for Jaycees from Houghton-Hancock, Ironwood, Iron Mountain - Kingsford, Menominee, Iron River, Escanaba, Ishpeming, Negaunee and Marquette. An officer from the state headquarters is to help conduct the orientation. Bernard J. Cudahy, Marquette, district vice president said.

The meeting is open to young men between the ages of 18 and 36 in the Sawyer - Gwinn area who are interested in forming a Jaycee chapter there.

In Service

S. Sgt. and Mrs. Richard C. Cass and daughter, Kenlyn, have arrived in Nurtzbury, Germany, where he will serve at the 3rd Military Police Co. of the 3rd Infantry Div. for three years.

The Casses traveled to Frankfurt, Germany, from McGuire Air Force Base, N. J., after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dennis DeCaire in Flint and Mr. and Mrs. John Cass Jr. in Lake Orion.

Sgt. Cass spent his leave in Escanaba after a year of duty in Vietnam. This will be his second tour of duty in Germany; he was stationed there from 1961 to 1964.

Sgt. Cass is the son of Mrs. Alta Cass, 1311 Ludington St., and his wife is the former Janet DeCaire. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeCaire Sr., 530 S. 13th St.

Night Swimmers Warned By City

Weather extremes, wind and rain have hampered swimming lessons at the municipal beach this week and instruction periods for beginners were curtailed according to conditions. "Parents are asked to note that the youngsters may be dismissed between 11:30 and 11:45 on mornings when the lessons of the day require submersion in the water," said Paul Vardigan, city recreation director. "For reasons of health and safety boys and girls should not remain in the water for more than an hour."

Vardigan announced that lifeguards have been directed to call in swimmers at night just as soon as it becomes difficult to see the lake bottom. "This is generally about 8 o'clock at this time of the year and the beach is officially closed shortly after."

"The cooperation of parents is asked in keeping youngsters from swimming after the beach is closed. Boys and girls should be reminded to confine their activities in the water to supervised waterfronts and only during the open hours."

Auge Is Named Quality Officer

Harnischfeger Corp. today announced the appointment of Henry L. Auge as manager of quality control for the firm's construction equipment plant here. In his new post Auge will be responsible for the coordination of all quality control service activities at the plant, including inspection techniques and the preventive measures required to assure product reliability.

Auge joined the Harnischfeger industrial engineering staff here in 1962 after spending three years at the Ladish Co. in Cudahy, Wis. His most recent assignment was that of plant industrial engineer. He received his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering from the Michigan Technological University in Houghton, in 1959.

Auge lives at 917 S. 14th St., with his wife, Katherine, and their two children, Carol and Hank Jr.

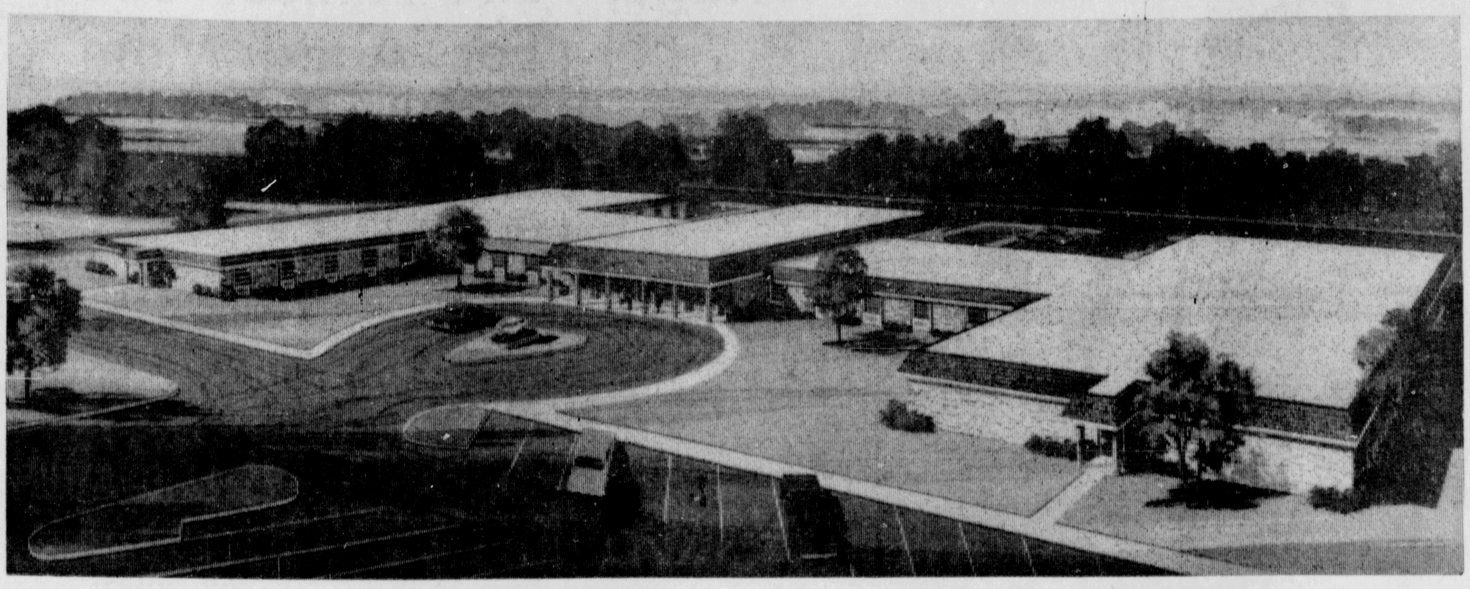
Medicenter Financing Near Goal



A DESIGN SIMILAR to that used in construction of Doctor's Park will be used in development of the new Medicenter planned for Escanaba across the street from Doctor's Park. The 60-bed facility will be used as a "transition" center for patients who do not need the intensive care of hospitals but need more attention than they would receive normally at home.

Only $80,000 remains of the $450,000 needed for construction of a 60-bed Medicenter project planned by a local group of professional men, Willow Creek Developers, Inc.

The extended-care facility will serve as a place for inpatient care between intensive hospitalization and normal life at home.

Seriously overcrowded hospitals have increased the need for this type of program across the country, according to Medicenters of America, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., who will build the facility here.

The Escanaba Medicenter — first in the Upper Peninsula and one of over 400 eventually planned in the United States — will be located at 2600 7th Ave. S., west of Doctor's Park.

Need 40 Employes

Presently planned for 60 beds, the facility will be expanded in the near future to 120 beds, according to a spokesman for Willow Creek Developers.

About 40 employes will be hired the first year and another 40 will be needed when the facility expands, including nurses, nurses aides, cooks, maids and maintenance personnel.

It is anticipated the total payroll of the facility will be about $150,000 per year.

Medicenters of America, Inc., a national developer of extended-care facilities, accepted the franchise application of Willow Creek Developers. The needed $80,000 will be raised through the full cooperation of the Escanaba Foundation, who will sell debentures. Other funds will be realized through a loan from Detroit & Northern Savings & Loan Association and Willow Creek Developers.

The debentures will bear eight per cent interest payable semi-annually. A sinking fund will be established to retire the debentures on or before Aug., 1978.

To Sell Debentures

Walter Lewke, secretary of the Escanaba Foundation and manager of the Chamber of Commerce, will sell the debentures at the Chamber building. Further information on the sale is available from local bankers, all members of the Escanaba Foundation, Matt Smith of Northern Michigan National Bank, Forrest Henslee of the State Bank, and John Green of First National Bank & Trust Co.

First National Bank & Trust Co. will act as trustee for the sinking fund for repayment of the securities.

The building's design will be similar to Doctor's Park.

The single-story floor plan calls for inclusion of barber and beauty shops, dining room, kitchen, nurses stations, and recreation room. Ancilliary services will include physical therapy, inhalation therapy and physio-therapy.

Diagnostic x-ray for inpatients and out-patients, pharmacy and laboratory services will be available at Doctor's Park.

Each patient room in the facility will have individual heating and cooling, bath, closets and a television hookup and also will feature telephone service and patient-nurse intercom system.

Nurse On Duty

A registered nurse will be on duty 24 hours per day.

Any doctor will be able to admit patients to the center and doctors at Doctor's Park will be available for emergency service. Costs will be lower than regular hospital charges.

Anyone over 15 years of age will be eligible for admission as the facility is designed as an "intermediate" recovery center for the needs of non-acute patients still under medical supervision.

Foundation Sells Debentures

The Escanaba Foundation will offer to the public the opportunity to invest in the newly-developed Medicenter project for Escanaba at a guaranteed rate of interest of eight per cent payable semi-annually, it was announced today.

The $80,000 in sinking fund debentures due in August, 1968, will be sold by Walter Lewke, manager of the Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the Escanaba Foundation, at the chamber building. The sale began today.

The debentures are issued by the Escanaba Foundation for the building of a 60-bed Medicenter facility in Escanaba by Willow Creek Developers, Inc., a Michigan corporation. The First National Bank & Trust Co. of Escanaba will act as trustee for the sinking funds for repayment of the debentures.

Former Carney Resident Dies

Mrs. Shirley Whittenberg, 31, of Coventry, R.I., formerly of Carney, died Thursday in London, Ontario, Canada.

The former Shirley Grandeen was born May 7, 1937 in Carney and graduated from Stephenson High School in 1955.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grandeen of Iron Mountain; one sister, Mrs. Harold (Betty) Neece of Carney and one brother, Edward, of Cedarburg, Wis.

Friends may call at the Diehm Funeral Home in Stephenson after 6 p.m. today and funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home with the Rev. Robert Mueller officiating. Burial will be in the Carney Congregational Free Church Cemetery.

City Approves Library Service To Delta County

Escanaba City Council voted unanimously to accept the proposal of the Escanaba City Library Board for establishment of branch libraries in Delta County.

Thursday evening's Council meeting had been set as the date and place to hear the board's recommendations concerning the most economical means of expanding library services to the county. Previously considered was a plan to acquire a bookmobile, but fears had been expressed that the operating costs of such a vehicle would exceed the $12,500 allocated for library expansion.

Under the accepted proposal, however, branch libraries that will open one or two days a week will be established and will be run by part-time non-professional employes.

In other actions, Council accepted the recommendation of City Manager George Harvey to ask payment of $1,041 from the owner of a barge which damaged the municipal dock last fall. Council agreed that the community would benefit if the damage was placed in a fund that would provide for complete repair of the municipal dock rather than if only a portion of the dock were repaired.

Lease Salvage Site

Council voted also to accept the request of Gallagher Marine, Inc., for the lease of eight acres of city property for one year, beginning Aug. 1, for $500. Gallagher Marine will use the municipal property between T. D. Vinette Co. yard and the C&NW Railway dock for storage of equipment and materials during the dismantling of the C&NW ore dock next winter.

In other money matters the low bid of Hawkins Chemical Inc. of Minneapolis to provide aluminum sulphate for water treatment in the amount of $63 per ton was accepted.

Council opened the floor to objections to the assessments for water and sewer extension on 5th Ave. S. from 28th to 30th St. No objections were received and the assessments were confirmed.

Ordinance 514, which provides for the vacation of public streets on the site of the new community center, was adopted, and the first reading on an ordinance which would vacate S. 17th St. from 11th to 12th Ave. S. plus a portion of 12th Ave. S. was heard.

Plat Approved

In other business Council approved the final plat of Parkway Estates Inc., resolved to ratify an agreement with the Federal Aviation Administration which would provide federal aid for airport expansion, and heard a request from U.S. Representative Philip Ruppe for Council to attend ceremonies next week in Washington, D.C. to receive a check for $100,000 granted to Escanaba under the auspices of the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission for airport development aid.

Council expressed gratitude to the Wally Byam Caravan, which donated $100 to the City of Escanaba "for use in any manner the city sees fit," and read letters from representatives of Hiawatha Post No. 2998 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The letters from C. C. Newell, VFW District Commander, and Hilding Skoglund, Post Commander, thanked the City for inviting the VFW to hold its 1969 convention in Escanaba.

Praising the city's efforts Skoglund's letter noted that "this is another first for Escanaba. Never in the history of the Veterans of Foreign Wars department conventions has the mayor of a city extended a personal invitation to the delegates."

Students Seeking Summer Jobs

James Damitz, manager of the Michigan Employment Security Commission reports that 75 high school students and graduates are still available for full or part-time summer work.

"These young people," according to Damitz, "offer a variety of work experiences for the employer. Some of the jobs represented in their experience include: stockboy, secretary, salesperson, laborer, child care worker, waitress and kitchen helper.

"Carefully selected personnel who can qualify for the job will be referred with the actual hiring left to the employer's discretion."

Employers who need workers can visit the employment office or phone 786-6841.

Jr. Republicans Set 21 Age Limit

The weekly meeting of the Delta County Young Republicans held Tuesday, produced decisions on membership policy, ratification of a statement of purpose, and plans for activities, reports President Fredric Jurmu.

The age limit for membership will be 21,

Plans were made for a teenage dance to be held Thursday, July 25, in the Escanaba Area High School commons; a sidewalk day bake sale July 31, a registration and membership drive and a Young Republicans' booth at the U. P. State Fair, Aug. 13 - 18. Next meeting is Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Republican headquarters.

Pompidou Goes

The firing of French Premier Georges Pompidou by French President Charles DeGaulle caused a big flap in France and elsewhere.

We should be conditioned to DeGaulle surprises, but this was still a dinger. DeGaulle has just been through the greatest trial of his presidency in the strikes, first by students and then by labor unions, that brought France to chaos.

Pompidou, more than any other one man except DeGaulle himself, saved DeGaulle in that crisis. His efforts were so valiant and successful that even DeGaulle, who shares credit only with the Lord, felt obligated to say that the nation owed him gratitude.

With the crisis past and a national election giving DeGaulle's party the largest parliamentary majority that any party has held in nearly a century, the President asked Pompidou how things were and Pompidou said he was tired and would like a little rest. DeGaulle gave him a permanent one.

The action has been described as the grossest display of ingratitude in high offices in many years. DeGaulle, for all his egomania, isn't a cur; why did he do it?

Best explanation seems to be that he had clashed with Pompidou in the recent strike crisis about how to solve it and that he didn't like having his No. 2 man such a big No. 2 (he virtually ruled France during the crisis), but that the clinching reason was not pique but strategy.

DeGaulle dumped Premier Debre, who preceded Pompidou, after he had pulled off the liberation of Algeria and solved a horrendously difficult problem for France. He had served his greatest usefulness, in DeGaulle's eyes and could go. Next was Pompidou and now he's no longer the second most influential man in France, but one of the 358 members of the national assembly and Couve de Murville is France's new premier.

Obviously DeGaulle thinks Couve is the right man for the new period, which is to feature a new governmental approach which DeGaulle calls "participation." And Couve may be the right man, certainly he is an ultra-able diplomat who has served DeGaulee spectacularly well in interpreting DeGaulle's foreign policy to the world. This has been a labor of Hercules as it has consisted largely of trying to get acceptance of often outrageous French unilateral action taken for the glory of La Patrie and with cavalier disregard of other nations' interests.

DeGaulle's "participation" in this new phase of his administration is a rather loose concept but it seems to suggest giving workers more to say in the management of business and students more to say in the operation of the universities, etc. This, DeGaulle believes, will reduce the caste system which he regards as responsible for last spring's disorders.

Couve probably has no strong objections to "participation" and even if he does we'll never hear of them; he will be unswervingly loyal and subservient to DeGaulle in this and all things. Pompidou is another kind of Frenchman. A hard realist, he thinks that participation is going to be a floperoo because neither French management nor French labor has shown any enthusiasm at all for it.

In any event, DeGaulle still is the government of France and it now enters a new phase. More democratization of the French economy and French education is proposed under the aegis of French government, which under DeGaulle has been sternly paternalistic. Whatever may be said of DeGaulle it can't be said truthfully that he makes things dull in France.

TV Cleanup Real?

The television industry has turned into one giant dry-cleaning shop in efforts to rid its product of the deep-dyed stains of violence.

Even as scissors snip scenes and cameras reshoot episodes, some voices are heard to murmur that this is but a passing attitude and mayhem unabridged will shortly be back on the home tubes.

A public accustomed to being vicariously burned, shot, gassed, hanged, stabbed, buried alive, garroted and you-name-it 365 evenings a year can scarcely be blamed for viewing the announced cleanup with jaundiced eyes.

It remains for television to prove whether this is merely a temporary rein on content or a genuine revision of intent in "entertaining" its vast audience.

Bang!

Man's ingenuity in devising ways to blow himself up is apparently endless. Latest development is a "Liquid Land Mine" using Astrolite, the most powerful known explosive.

In a recent test, a two-ton truck was completely destroyed by just eight pounds of the liquid. Poured directly onto a dirt road, the stuff soaks into the first few inches of earth, giving tremendous upheaval power. Although the land mine was fired remotely in the test, a pressure-sensitive fuse can be used that will react to the weight of a passing vehicle.

Other virtues of the liquid are that it remains detonable for up to four days, even in the rain, but eventually deactivates itself, making dangerous minefield clearance unnecessary. Once applied, it cannot be detected by standard mine-detection equipment.

Liquid Land Mine can be simply poured from canteenlike containers, says its maker, Explosives Corp. of America, or sprayed from trucks or helicopters.

What next for home and garden use?

The War Training Service Flight School in Escanaba, operating under contract with the Army, will be closed in a few weeks and will not reopen. A total of 94 men have completed training since the school was opened in 1942. Prof. C. B. Hedgcock, WTS school coordinator, said the school will be closed because the Army now has all the necessary training centers. The Navy, however, will continue some light plane training.

Letters To The Press

Superintendent Explains Needs Of Area Schools

To the People of the Escanaba Area Public School District:

I come to you as your superintendent of schools. In this capacity as an educational leader in the community it is my responsibility to manage your public schools, to see that the best educational program possible is provided your children within the economic resources provided, to inform you what the educational needs are, and to encourage you to provide for those needs. That is my purpose with these words. My eligibility to do this is based upon 23 years of experience in public education in Michigan, 21 of those years being in an administrative capacity, the last four here in Escanaba.

Luther M. Barrett

In the field of education, the public school superintendent is being referred to as "The Manager of Change." In no area of human endeavor is change taking place more rapidly than in education.

Yet, we here in Escanaba have done little to keep up with change and the new developments taking place in education. We have not become involved in TV instruction. We have not turned to the use of the many new instructional devices now available nor specially programmed materials. We have not added new subjects to our curriculum as rapidly as we should.

Why? Because these new things, these changes, cost money. They require new equipment, new materials, new personnel, new services. We have not been able to consider keeping up with change because of costs.

The question might be asked, "What are we doing with our educational dollar?"

The answer to this is that we have been trying just to maintain our present status. We have been trying to keep up with increasing enrollments, with increasing costs of materials and services, with increasing salaries.

To remind you of the scope of your public school system, let me point out that it enrolls some 4,600 boys and girls attending classes in 13 classroom buildings, taught by nearly 200 professionally trained people, provided additional services by some 75 other non-teaching personnel, transported to school by a fleet of 17 buses covering the 180 square miles in the district.

It is no small operation. It takes money to operate it, and more money all the time.

We have tried to point out to you over the past few months in connection with millage elections just how much. More funds must be obtained or educational opportunities for children and other services reduced. Let us look for a moment at these alternatives.

★ ★ ★

Funds to operate schools come from local, state and federal sources.

Federal money is closely controlled. It must be used for certain types of programs and in many instances must be matched with local funds.

State funds have increased markedly over the past few years, but the maximum has just about been reached unless new tax sources are found.

This leaves the local community. It would seem to be much better to obtain needed funds locally rather than from outside sources as then we can get dollar-for-dollar benefit. When the state or the nation obtains funds for us, much is by necessity lost in collection, administration and distribution costs. Actually, less than 50 per cent of our funds are obtained locally at present. Would it not be well for us to provide at least half the money we need right here at home?

The alternative to obtaining more funds is to reduce the educational opportunities for our children. How can we afford to do this?

A midwestern university president recently made the following statement: "In the last analysis, education always emerges as the ultimate solution to all the world's ills, be they war, poverty, or racism." This is why so much more attention is being given to education today than ever before. We just cannot consider shortchanging our children educationally. We cannot be satisfied with just maintaining the present situation.

"What was good enough for me is good enough for my children." Although that statement is often used by the reluctant taxpayer, it is not meant unless that individual wants to go back to making the wage his father did and to having no more of today's conveniences than his father had.

Much has been said about the salaries of teachers in Escanaba, that increases in salaries have caused our difficulty.

Teachers do receive better salaries than ever before, but so do all other workers in our society. The mechanics of collective bargaining are carried out for that purpose.

For many, many years teachers really subsidized the public schools. When boards of education didn't have sufficient funds, rather than go to the people for additional money they would just decide that there would be no increase in salaries. As a result, teacher salaries fell far below where they should have been for professionally trained people. Young people were thereby discouraged from becoming teachers and, when coupled with the rapid increase in the birth rate following World War II, this resulted in the severe shortage of teachers from which we are still suffering.

But the situation is changing. Teachers and other public employes now have the opportunity for collective bargaining, something which has been reserved for workers in private enterprise in the past.

How do the salaries of teachers in Escanaba compare with those elsewhere in Michigan? I have just received a report of salaries in 249 school districts in the state. This represents nearly half of all districts. At the beginning salary, only 39 of these districts pay less than Escanaba, 29 are at the same level, while 180 of them pay more to starting teachers.

The situation is better at the top salary level. Here, 128 pay less than in Escanaba while 119 pay higher. This puts our beginning teachers near the bottom of the list, our most experienced teachers at just about the middle. This means we keep our teachers; we have a stable staff.

Of 183 teachers on our staff last year (not including administrators), only 23 are not returning. This is just a 12.5 percent turnover. Of these 23 not returning, six reached the mandatory retirement age, five are leaving for health reasons (including pregnancies) three follow their husbands who are taking jobs outside the community, and four were filling in temporarily when the teacher shortage last fall did not permit filling the staff. This leaves but five teachers leaving for all other reasons.

Another special millage election has been scheduled for Aug. 19. Your Board of Education has studied the situation and knows the needs for your schools. The members know the alternatives and are reluctant to reduce the educational opportunities for your children. This is why they come to you again for your aid.

These people are your friends and neighbors who have indicated their willingness to dedicate much time and effort in service to this community. They get no financial return (in fact, it costs them money) and very little thanks. They all are taxpayers, so whatever tax applies to you also applies to them. They are beset by all sorts of controls and restrictions—from state and federal governments, from the new professional negotiations law, and from the local taxpayer.

People have many stated reasons for voting against issues such as will be placed before you on Aug. 19. Some do so because of personality conflicts with members of the board or school employes. Some do so because of slights or unfair treatment (real or imagined) in the distant past. Others use reasons of religion or distrust of facts presented. And then there are those few who honestly cannot afford any additional taxes, primarily those on fixed incomes (pensioners). This last category does not include the man who was heard to say following an earlier election: "I voted against the issue because I can't afford it. After all, I have five children in school."

But whatever the reasons of the past, it is hoped that on Aug. 19 the electorate of this school district will join forces and pass the issue. An often quoted expression, probably originated by some person who felt the pressure of living, is "Life is real; life is earnest." Those of us who feel the pressure of the school situation can add "The need is real; the need is earnest." Your support is essential. Please ! !

Today's six-club contract would be a cinch had West opened anything but a spade. Declarer wouldn't like a diamond opening but he would take a heart finesse at trick two. When that worked, he would simply play out ace and another club and eventually run the hearts to take care of his spade losers.

New Jersey expert Ira Rubin was declarer when West opened the three of spades. Ira won the first trick with the queen over East's jack, cashed the ace of spades and ruffed his last spade. Then he finessed his jack of clubs and played the ace. The king failed to drop and Ira threw East in with that card.

At this point, Alvin Roth, one of the greatest players in the world, who sat East, made a really brilliant play which did nothing to make things easier for declarer. He played his eight of diamonds!

Ira ruffed. It would have been rather silly to play Roth for the ace of diamonds so early in the play, when there was still a really good play in hearts left.

Now Ira ran off all his trumps. West let one heart go somewhere along the line. Two hearts were played from dummy early and, finally, the last diamond. Roth, sitting East, hung on to his nine of hearts, ace of diamonds and a spade.

The next play was the king of hearts, to which everyone followed. The four of hearts produced the eight from West and the moment of decision had arrived. The three missing cards were the queen of hearts, a spade and the ace of diamonds. West still held one card. If it was the ace of diamonds, or the spade, Ira could rise with the ace of hearts and drop East's queen.

Ira knew that Roth had been capable of underleading his ace of diamonds, so there was no clue there. Finally, Ira decided to play general percentage. West had started with more hearts than East, therefore he was more likely to hold the queen. Ira finessed and made the slam.

Life Almost Over For 'Aged' Mom, 43

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is an attractive, dignified man—respected and well liked by everyone. Dwayne holds a good position with a nationally known firm. He came home from work this evening and repeated the following story:

About 3:00 p. m. he walked from his desk to the water cooler. As he was leaning over to take a drink, his boss (an elderly man) came up behind him and gave him three hard slaps on the backside. This was in full view of the entire office. The boss then shouted in a voice that could be heard by everyone, "That will teach you to waste time. Get back to your desk and go to work."

My husband is so humiliated by this public spanking that he wants to quit his job. I've tried to tell him the old man was kidding and he should not be so sensitive. At the same time, I must agree it is a mighty strange way for a boss to treat a 36-year-old employe. Your opinion is wanted.—HOUSTON

Dear Houston: Kidding, you say? The old gaffer sounds senile to me. If your husband has a good job I hope he will not quit because of this single incident. Encourage him to consider the source and make allowances.

★ ★ ★

Dear Ann Landers: Many people read your column and little else. Please get across this vital message to Mr. and Mrs. America.

First: You are not going to live forever. Second: Unless you don't give a hoot about what happens to your money and possessions after you are gone, put your wishes in writing and make it legal.

I work in a lawyer's office and I've heard the following statements so many times it makes me sick: "I know Papa wanted to put his nephews through college. He said so many times but his second wife is keeping everything for herself." Here's another familiar tune: "My sister would not like what is happening in the family. She often told me she would provide for our invalid brother but her selfish children have inherited everything and feel they owe their uncle nothing."

Unless it's written down and in legal form, you can be sure of nothing, except that the law will take over. What's right morally or what "Papa wanted" doesn't amount to a hill of beans unless it's in writing and 100 per cent legal.—BROKEN RECORD

Dear Record: I hope every person who reads your letter will ask himself, "If I died tomorrow would my property and goods be divided just as I want them to be?"

★ ★ ★

Dear Ann Landers: My mother and dad have been divorced for two years. Dad was mean to her and she is glad to be rid of him. He was mean to us kids, too, and we are happy he has moved away.

Mom is seeing a divorced man. He is good to her and acts like a father to my two younger brothers. The problem is that I am ashamed my parents are divorced and I've told my friends this man is my uncle. I hope Mom doesn't marry him but I don't know how to tell her. She is 43 years old and her life is just about over. Can you help me?—HAZEL EYES

Dear Hazel: You'd better set the record straight before your "uncle" turns out to be your stepdad. And another thing you'd better get straight is that a woman 43 does not have one foot in the grave. In a few years you and your brothers will be on your own and your mom will be alone. Wish her luck and be happy for her.

Gun Control Vote Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill banning the mail-order sales of rifles, shotguns and ammunition has picked up support from the House Republican leadership. But it still faces a blizzard of more than 100 amendments which could strengthen it, weaken it or kill it.

The unusual volume of amendments readied for today's session was expected to delay a final vote until Saturday or possibly early next week.

The amendments range from minor exemptions to lessen the impact on hunters and collectors to provisions for registration of all firearms and licensing of owners.

Another proposed major change in the measure as originally asked for by President Johnson would impose mandatory prison sentences for those who carry a gun while committing a felony.

Redingote Star Of Italian Fashion Scene

ROME (AP) — As far as Italian designers are concerned, the hemline next fall and winter stays about two inches above the knee and the slim-waisted flared redingote will be queen of the fashion scene.

In the showings of their new collections that ended Thursday night, the Italians largely abandoned their penchant for vivid colors and turned to black and white and neutral shades for daytime. But they let themselves go with plenty of lame and rhinestone sparkle and multicolor jeweled embroidery to enliven the evening.

Valentino Stars

Many designers harked back to the 1940s, and only a few forged ahead with novel ideas. Valentino was the undisputed star of the season, Italy's most valuable asset in couture export.

It looked like a cold winter ahead with furs and fur trimmings galore. The big fox shako hat was seen everywhere. Trouser suits, thigh-high boots and capes were high in the popularity stakes.

Even the bride wore thigh boots, a woolen dress bordered with white fox and a halo of the same fur at Daniele in the last show of the season.

Maxicoats, Pants

A few maxicoats often over pants, turned up at many houses, but only Tita Rossi went all out for long skirts.

Long scarves were part of the '40s kick, but only De Barentzen brought back snoods. Shoe heels were higher and thicker, and stockings were fanciful with clocks of anything from climbing vines to white elephants, or simply naughty in sheer black.

Galitzine even put a seam stripe down the front. If these catch on, we may have to put up with being told that we've put our stockings on backwards.

Cornish Pasties Are a Must

When a young Irish girl marries a man whose family came from Cornwall, England, there's something she must learn to make: Pasties.

And that's just what an Irish lady we know of did when she was a bride. After garnering the recipe from her mother-in-law, she made the pasties so well that all the relatives on her husband's side began to ask for her recipe.

Here it is. A wonderful rule for three large meat-and-vegetable turnovers encased in rich pastry—enough to serve six.

The filling for the turnovers calls for beef, pork, suet, potatoes and turnip. But let's not forget the seasoning. That's a good part of the secret. The seasoning is a savory blend of butter plus a beef bouillon cube and tabasco sauce.

The pasties are great for supper—weekday or Sunday night. All that's needed with them is a salad. Fruit and cheese will make a perfect dessert.

Land's End Pasties

1 pound beef round steak, ¼ inch thick
3 pork chops, ½ inch thick
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 beef bouillon cube
¾ teaspoon tabasco sauce
1 medium onion, thinly sliced
6 tablespoons knife-chopped suet, fine
1½ cups thinly sliced potatoes
¾ cup thinly sliced yellow turnip
¾ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon minced parsley
Pasty pastry (see following recipe)

Cut beef and pork chops into 1-inch pieces; reserve pork-chop bones.

In a small skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add the bouillon cube, tabasco and onion. Cook, stirring often and mashing bouillon cube, until onion is tender but not brown.

On one side of each of the 3 rounds of Pasty Pastry arrange a layer of beef and pork and 1 pork chop bone. Top with layers of suet, potatoes, turnip and the onion-butter mixture; sprinkle with salt and parsley.

Moisten edges of pastry with water; fold uncovered side of pastry over filling to form a semi circle. Press edges firmly together and fold in once toward filling. Flute edges as for a pie—pressing pastry edge against index finger of right pasties index finger of right hand with thumb and index finger of left hand; or crimp edge with the flat side of a pastry wheel to seal. Do not slit top of pastry.

Using 2 wide spatulas, place pasties a few inches apart in a large shallow baking pan. (Line the pan with foil, if you like, because a little of the filling juices will ooze out.)

Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven for 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Cut each pasty into 2 portions. Serve hot. Three eaters get the portions with the bones in them.

Makes 6 servings.

Pasty Pastry

3 cups sifted regular flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup solid white vegetable shortening
½ cup cold water.

In a large mixing bowl stir together the flour and salt. With a pastry blender cut in the shortening until it is blended with the flour.

Sprinkle water over mixture, tossing with a fork until particles stick together. With your hands, form dough into a ball: divide into 3 equal parts and form each into a ball.

On a prepared pastry cloth with a stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll each portion into an 11-inch round. Use as directed in recipe for Land's End Pasties.

Cotton has superior resistance to shrinkage.

ENGLISH PASTIES — A wonderful combination of meat and vegetables encased in pastry and seasoned with onion, a bouillon cube and tobasco sauce.

Four Arrested For Violations

Four men were arrested by Conservation Department officers for various game and conservation violations. Robert L. Patrick, 38, of Phoenix, Ariz., was arrested for unlawfully possessing parts of a black bear, illegally taken; James Lorenz, 64, of Freemont, Ohio and James Parsons, 26, of Gwinn, for possessing 10 black bass less than 10 inches long and John W. Stromquist, 34, Rte. 2, Rapid River for operating an unregistered boat with outboard motor.

Patrick was arrested July 17 and arraigned that day before Justice Hugo Filizetti of Gwinn. He pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and 7.30 costs. He was charged an additional $100 for liquidated damages plus $4 collection fee and his deer hunting license was revoked for three years.

Lorenz and Parsons also appeared before Justice Filizetti and were each fined $20 with $7.30 costs.

Stromquist was arrested July 8 and was arrainged July 12 before William Dore, Munising where he pleaded guilty and was fined $5 with 4.30 costs.

Schaffer Youth Saves Boy

SCHAFFER — Melvin Bisson, 15, of Norwalk, Calif., vacationing at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor of Schaffer, saved the life of an unidentified young boy on Thursday.

The boy, about eight or nine years old, fell off the bank of 10 Mile Creek behind the Tom Bartoszek residence in Perronville and Mrs. Taylor saw him go down and called her grandson to help.

Melvin got a hold of the youth as he was going down again and managed to get him to shore. The boy was conscious but had swallowed a lot of water.

Before the Taylors could get the boy's name, he left with an elderly man in a car with Illinois license plates. Melvin's mother is the former Marlene Taylor of Schaffer.

State Opposes Gas Price Hike

LANSING (AP) — The State Public Service Commission has filed a petition to intervene before the Federal Power Commission in a proposal by Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co. for a wholesale gas rate increase.

Peter Spivak, commission chairman, said the proposed new rates would increase the cost of gas to Michigan utilities by $10.52 million.

"Such an increase could have a direct effect on Michigan retail gas rates, "Spivak said. "Our commission must be in a position to introduce evidence and cross examine at this hearing on behalf of Michigan's gas customers.

Michigan - Wisconsin sells wholesale gas to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., Michigan Gas Utilities Co. and Michigan Gas and Electric Co. In addition, it sells to Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, which has individual customers in Menominee.

Spivak said Michigan Consolidated would feel the brunt of the increase which would cost the utility more than $9.5 million. He estimated other costs of the proposed increase as $444,401 to Michigan gas and Electric, $500,647 to Michigan Gas Utilities and $33,845 to Wisconsin Public Service Corporation.

Cliffs Finances Study Of Ore Waste Area Usability

Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. of Ishpeming and its associated companies have agreed to grant nearly $130,000 to Michigan Technological University, in Houghton, for a study of Cliffs iron ore tailings basins located on the Marquette Range in the Upper Peninsula.

In the process of producing high grade iron ore pellets the waste rock material from Cliffs plants is pumped to tailings basins for disposal. Nature in its own way eventually revegetates inactive basins, however, one aspect of the proposed study would seek ways of speeding up the growth of trees, grasses and shrubs.

The study also is concerned with bringing wildlife back in to the area. The project was developed at Tech through Leo Lucchesi, director of the state technical services program, who coordinated discussions which led to the cooperative program.

"Cliffs has a long history of sound conservation practices and its concern about the status, condition and interest in future utilization for nonmining use of inactive tailings basins prompted the agreement for the proposed study by MTU," said J. S. Westwater, Cliffs vice president-mining.

The proposed study has endorsement of the Michigan Department of Conservation which had also indicated a concern for the conditions which might exist in the future when basins are inactive.

The program has four phases, ranging from 12 to 24 months, which will (1) look at the science, properties and distribution of the waters in the basins (2) study the physical aspects of the tailings (3) check on the basins' revegetation possibilities (4) examine the quality of waters returned from the basins to natural, surrounding streams.

Tech's program is unique in that rather than involving just one department, the disciplines of biology, civil engineering and forestry have been put to work in the investigation.

Four Jailed On Larceny Charge

Four Escanaba young men are currently serving five days in the Delta County Jail on a petty larceny charge following arraignment Thursday in Municipal Court before Judge James Fitzharris.

The youths, Robert Baker, 18, 306 S. 10th St., James Clements, 19, 502 S. 17th St., Steven Houle, 17, 326 S. 9th St. and James Derouin, 18, 1517 Ludington St., were arrested by Escanaba City Police Thursday after a complaint was signed by Pete Boyce, manager of the Holiday Station Store.

About $37.70 in merchandise was taken from the store Sunday. The group also were fined $5 each.

Menominee To Drink Sundays

Menominee County Board of Supervisors in special session Thursday evening at Menominee voted in Sunday liquor sales under the new state law.

The City of Menominee, said Mayor John Reindl, had been unable to develop supper club business because of the lack of Sunday bar service and the presence of it across the Menominee River in Marinette, Wis.

Menominee County was the sixth of the 15 U.P. counties to vote in Sunday liquor, the board was told.

American Crew Captured

Cambodia Seizes U.S. Patrol Ship

SAIGON (AP) — The Cambodian navy was reported today to have seized an American patrol boat in the Mekong Delta and arrested 11 Americans and one South Vietnamese aboard.

U.S. military authorities in Saigon confirmed that a Navy landing craft was missing in the delta but said it had 10 Americans aboard. There was no mention of any South Vietnamese passenger. It was assumed to be the boat which a newspaper in Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, said was seized a mile inside Cambodian river waters.

American authorities said the missing landing craft left Dong Tam, a base near the delta city of My Tho, on July 15 and headed up river for Binh Thuy, another base just up river from Can Tho, the delta's largest city. The trip up the Mekong and Bassac rivers and across a major canal should have taken two days, but the boat did not arrive on the night of July 17.

U.S. headquarters said a search for the past two days had failed to produce any trace of the boat.

It was assumed that the United States would send Cambodia a request for return of the boat and its crew, using the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh as the channel. Australia has represented U.S. interests in Cambodia since Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state, broke relations with Washington in 1965.

AN 11-POUND, 4-OUNCE WALLEYE will make quite a dinner for Randy Kralovetz, Rte. 1, Escanaba. Kralovetz landed the lunker while fishing Tuesday morning at Breezy Point. He was trolling with a black and white flatfish. The fish is the largest walleye from the area registered in a national magazine's fishing contest. (Daily Press Photo)

School Forest Aids Lab $5,602

The professional aid that state foresters of the Michigan Conservation Department give to agencies and persons other than the state itself is dramatized by a recent incident at Rapid River, where the school forest had some pine stumpage to market as pulpwood.

The school superintendent, reported Area Forester Michael R. Zuidema, got a private offer of $400 for stumpage, and called in Zuidema for a survey which showed a large volume of jackpine averaging around 52 years of age, which is considered mature in this species.

Zuidema counseled public sale of the timber to give everyone a chance to bid and the superintendent agreed and asked if it could be made in lump sum payment, as the school was in need of laboratory equipment for the science department and with a lump payment could buy it immediately.

In three days Zuidema and his forestry aide cruised the state forest and marked roadside zones and wrote a management plan for the 240 acre forest. When the work was completed they advertised in local newspapers and offered the timber for sale to the highest lump sum bidder on an estimated 957 cords of mixed jackpine, scotch pine and red pine. The sale brought two bids and the higher paid $5,602.20.

The forestry service was offered under the Conservation Department's Cooperative Forest Management program, a free service available to any private forest landowner. The service is limited in case of large landowners because of the department's limited personnel.

Sidewalk Day Plans Finalized By Chamber Group

Ludington Street will be roped off from 8th to 14th Streets for the Sidewalk Day sale of the Retail Division of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, July 31, co-chairman of the event, Pat Kinn and Ralph Zenker, announced at the monthly meeting of the division held Thursday noon at the Sherman Hotel.

Stores will open their usual morning hours and will remain open until 9 p. m.

Goodrider's ponies will provide entertainment for the children and the Escanaba Municipal Band will march and play in the roped off area starting at 7:30 p. m.

Churches and organizations planning bake sales and other attractions for the middle of the street are asked to contact Kinn at Kresge's or Zenker at Woolworth's or the Chamber office. The League of Women Voters will have their annual bake sale in progress during the sale and the Jaycees will also have an attraction.

Businesses outside the roped off area are invited to have sale booths in the roped off area in the middle of the street.

The division also financed plans for a back to school promotion, and September and October promotions.

Flint Cyclists Finish Marathon

FLINT (AP) — With shouts of "We did it," five Flint teenagers completed 250 hours of marathon bicycle riding at 4 a.m. today and claimed to have set a world record.

The boys, who started pedaling July 8, traveled a combined total of 3,041 miles—enough to have put them in Ecuador, Iceland or Point Barrow if the bike would have traveled a straight course.

Church Council Condemns U.S.

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — The World Council of Churches overwhelmingly approved today a resolution in effect condemning U.S. intervention in Vietnam and calling for a cease-fire in the war.

The vote in the Fourth Assembly of the council, which represents 300 million Anglican, Orthodox and Protestant church members around the world, was about 300 to 20. Thirty delegates abstained.

American churchmen joined others in debate in condemning the American policy in Vietnam. One, the Rev. Robert McAfee Brown, professor of religion at Stanford Universty, said he wished for a stronger statement from the council "because my country bears the highest degree of responsibility."

"It will take the power of world opinion to bring us to our senses," the Rev. Mr. Brown said.

Thurmond said "it might be hard to explain to the public" how Fortas could make lectures and otherwise expound on his views and then say he could not answer questions "when you come before the Judiciary Committee for a promotion to be chief justice of the United States."

"You have expressed your views to the President when he has called you down there, and over the telephone, haven't you?" Thurmond asked.

"No, sir," Fortas replied. "Never."

Thurmond pressed: "And he got the benefit of your views on matters, did he not?"

Fortas: "Never."

Thurmond: "Why shouldn't a senator have the benefit of your views?"

Fortas: "I have never, never been asked by the President nor have I expressed my views on any pending or decided case—never, senator, never."

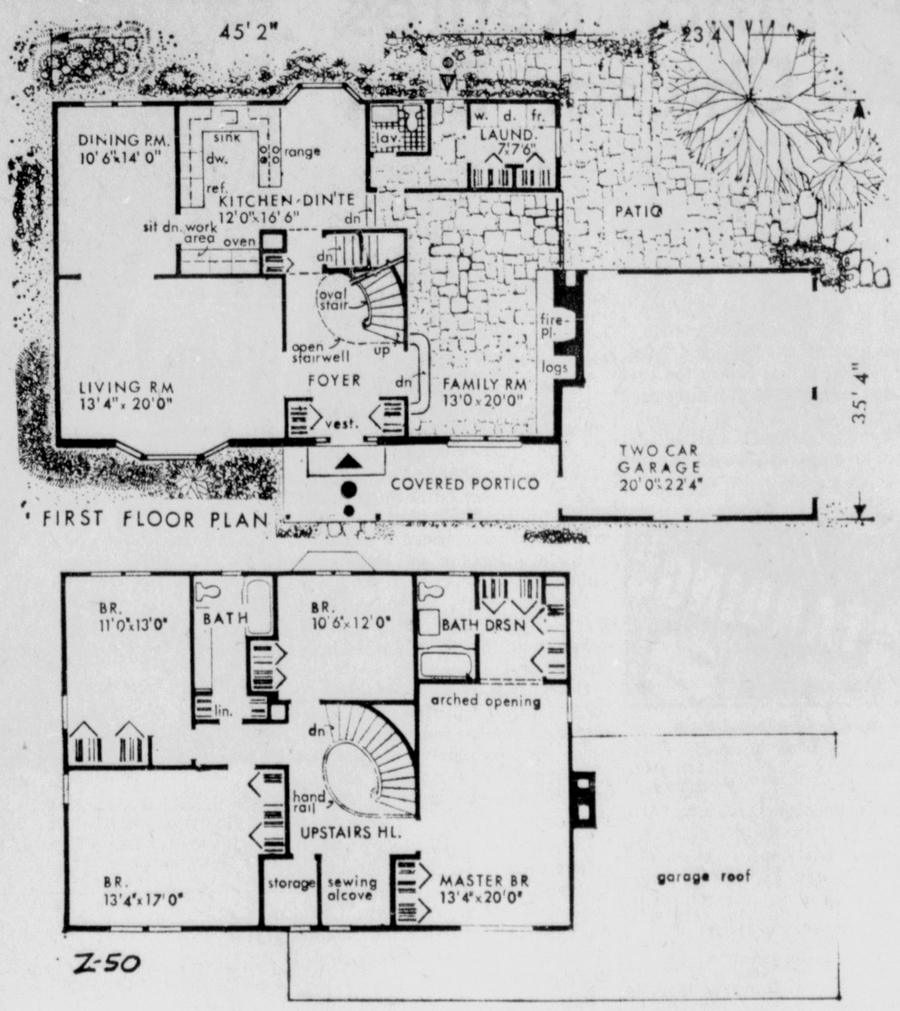
OVAL STAIRCASE: This type of staircase, used so often in the higher-quality Colonials, lends an interesting touch to foyer and leads to the second floor and its four bedrooms.

PLEASANT EXTERIOR: There isn't much doubt that this two-story Colonial gives the appearance of being a comfortable place in which to live. Note how garage seems to be part of the basic house, with its materials and design features identical to the rest of the structure.



FLOOR PLANS: Informal living gets a big play in this floor arrangement, with a spacious family room, two steps down from the foyer and featuring a fireplace and stone floor and with sliding doors leading to a rear patio, tucked in behind the garage.

Colonial 2-Story Charmer

By ANDY LANG

"What a charming house" is likely to be the first-impression comment of most guests to this gracious, four-bedroom, two-story Colonial.

With cedar shingles as the principal exterior material, supplemented by small amounts of brick and channel groove siding, and enhanced by such traditional touches as a bay window, small panes, window boxes and a covered portico, it exudes warmth and hospitality.

Inside, there is a continuation of the friendly atmosphere. From the vestibule, the large foyer is tastefully entrwined in the elegant curve of an oval staircase. This seldom-used Colonial feature, often mimicked with contemporary circular stairs, accurately restores that elusive delicacy so important to the quality of this type of home.

For one standing in the foyer at the staircase, elements of the living room have been designed by architect Samuel Paul as focal points to attract and orient the eye: a smooth unbroken wall in the living room, a bay window in the dinette looking to the rear yard, a brick fireplace with raised hearth in the spacious family room.

The dining room is accessible from both the kitchen and the living room, and its large window facing the landscaped rear provides an added dimension to formal dining. The sizeable kitchen-dinette is comfortable and pleasant for informal dining. The U-shaped work area has more than adequate countertop space. And there is a sit-down work area which will be appreciated by the busy housewife. The dinette is enlarged by the provision of a bay window and can accommodate the family comfortably.

The rugged family room has sliding doors to the patio and barbecue, a large fireplace and log storage area, a convenient lavatory a step away, a durable stone floor and wood paneled walls, giving an appealing indoor-outdoor character to the whole setup. A two-step change in floor level, making the family room sunken, in effect, sets this heavily-used room apart from the rest of the home.

At the head of the oval staircase, the upstairs hall is the nucleus of the bedroom complex. The sewing alcove is a control point. The master bedroom suite features almost 20 lineal feet of closet space, a dressing area with a vanity table, good natural light and ventilation and a separate bathroom. There is good closet space throughout, featuring full height bi-fold doors for ease of installation and use.

While the frontage of the basic house is only 45' 2", it has been made longer by the two-car garage, which gives the appearance of being part of the living area by the continuation of its roof across the portico. Placement of the garage in this fashion also has provided space for a patio in the rear.

Z-50 STATISTICS

Design Z-50, a two-story Colonial, has a living room, dining room, kitchen-dinette, family room, foyer, laundry and lavatory on the first floor, totaling 1260 square feet. There are three bedrooms, two baths and generous closet and storage space upstairs, totaling 1305 square feet. Over-all dimensions are 68' 6" by 35' 4". A patio and two-car garage are included within those dimensions.

Runway Cycling To Mean Arrest

Jon Thorin, manager of the Escanaba Area Airport, has ordered signs erected at the airport warning that persons who walk or ride motorcycles on the airport runways will be arrested.

"One of North Central's flights on July 10th was delayed six minutes because there were some boys on motorcycles on the runway," said Thorin. "This is not only illegal, it is very dangerous and it will not be tolerated."

"We have a hazard from deer on the airport and we have a friendly coyote that we can't threaten with the law, but that doesn't apply to people who are playing on the runways or taking shortcuts across the airport. We've been fortunate so far with the deer, but a deer was killed by an airliner on the Iron Mountain airport recently. Fortunately there was no damage to the plane."

$1,195 Chair Is Sold For $11.95

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — An antique shop owner returned from a business trip Thursday and discovered that one of his salesmen had sold a $1,195 Philadelphia Chippendale chair that was 200 years old to an unidentified woman for $11.95.

J. W. Chandler, the owner, said the salesman, Frank Coffman, blanched when he told him the price of the chair.

"You've never seen a sicker man," Chandler said. "Yes, he's still employed. It was just a mistake."

Petitbon Retires As Chicago Bear

By The Associated Press

Richie Petitbon, a one-time all-pro defensive back, suddenly retired. And John McCormick, a one - time starting quarterback in the American Football League, just as suddenly un-retired.

"I guess I just got the itch," said McCormick, Denver's No. 1 signal-caller in 1965 and 1966. He retired at the end of the 1966 season to go into the insurance business.

"I miss football and I'll be glad to get back," said the 31-year-old veteran, who joined the Broncos in 1963 after a year with Minnesota as a backup quarterback and punter. "I just hope I can be of help."

Petitbon, who went to the Chicago Bears from Tulane in 1959, said Thursday he decied to quit the game and devote full time to his insurance and real estate business in New Orleans.

"Due to increased business pressure," he wrote the Bears, "I will be unable to leave New Orleans this season. It was probably the hardest decision I've ever made, but I must look to the future. I felt the time had come to decide where I wanted to make my home and raise my children."

In Green Bay, the champion Packers had their first scrimmage, with the defense crushing the offense.

Coach Phil Bengtson said the poor show by the offense was expected for two reasons, the offense had more new faces and it was primarily a running game with the defense knowing what to expect.

In Fullerton, Calif., two rookie quarterbacks for the Dallas Cowboys were outstanding in a controlled scrimmage with Los Angeles Rams rookies. The Dallas rookies were on offense, the Rams on defense.

Roger Staubach, who won't be discharged from the Navy until next year, and Bill Creedon combined to complete 19 of 28 passes for 293 yards and three touchdowns.

Heat exhaustion plagued the Washington Redskins at Carlisle, Pa., where the temperature hit 98. Flanker Jerry Smith and tackle Joe Rutgens, stricken Wednesday when the temperature went to 100, were released from the hospital but kept on the sidelines.

Running back Steve Thurlow was added to the hospital list Thursday. Rookie tackle Dennis Crane underwent treatment but was not hospitalized.

Greg Brezina, last of the Atlanta Falcons holdouts, came to terms in Johnson City, Tenn. Terms of the contract were not announced.

New york Jet quarterback Mike Taliaferro, who has spent most of his four seasons playing behind Joe Namath, asked to be traded.

"I want to go somewhere I'll have a chance to play," he said.

Bubba Smith Mean In Camp

WESTMINISTER, Md. (AP) —Former Michigan State All-American Bubba Smith, who weighed in at the Baltimore Colts training camp at a lean 287 pounds this week, made the leather pop Thursday and contributed to the satisfaction of Coach Don Shula.

A spokesman for the National Football League club said Smith, a 6-foot-8, defensive end was downright mean Thursday morning in the Oklahoma drill in which a defensive player is matched against a blocker and a ball carrier.

Fleckman Takes Lead In PGA Opening Round

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Marty Fleckman is leading the PGA golf championship through the coaching of Byron Nelson—but his tutor has picked another man.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Lee Trevino went all the way to win this one," Nelson, a two-time PGA titlist, said before the tournament started Thursday.

Trevino backed up the prediction by opening with a 69, but the U.S. Open champion's start wasn't fast enough to hold the lead.

Fleckman, a dark, handsome 24-year-old, rode a hot putter to a four-under-par 66 on the maligned Pecan Valley course, taking a two-stroke edge over tour veteran Frank Beard.

He used only 26 putts on the tricky greens, bogeyed only one hole and picked up five birdies, including one on the second hole where he chipped in from 25 feet.

Fleckman who ruined his blazing showing as an amateur in the 1967 U.S. Open by shooting a finishing 80—said he didn't think that would happen again.

"If I'm leading Saturday night, I won't be so nervous," he said. "I've learned a lot from failure."

Fleckman also learned not to fight the course, which drew sharp criticism from other pros for its wicked rough and odd layout which forces the big bombers to use popguns off several tees.

"I'd rather hit a driver off the tee," said Fleckman, who used that club only five times to avoid Salado Creek and the rough. "But it's the same for everybody—there's no use getting mad about it."

Beard, who missed a chance to share the lead when he bogeyed the last two holes, replied "no comment" when asked what he thought of the layout. Arnold Palmer, who opened with a 71, called the 18th hole "ridiculous" because only Jack Nicklaus was able to drive over the creek.

Nicklaus shot a 71, two strokes back of Trevino, Mason Rudolph and young Don Bies. Deadlocked at 70 were Dan Sikes, Charles Coody, Miller Barber, Johnny Pott, former PGA titlist Al Geiberger, Frank Boynton and Laurie Hammer.

Bill Casper, one of the pre-tournament favorites, slipped to a 74. Tom Weiskopf, another contender, soared to a 77. Dave Stockton, who won two titles and $62,000 in his last two starts on the tour, had 75 on the 7,096-yard course.

Defending champion Don January shot a 78, which left him in danger of missing the cut toay when the field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after the second round.

Karla Deming Wins Women's Golf Crown

Four Time Champion Beaten On 15th Hole

Although Karla Deming served notice to the field, sweeping medalist honors in the qualifying rounds of the Upper Peninsula Women's Golf Ass'n. tournament at the Highland Golf Club, it is doubtful that anyone figured her as a serious threat to Iron Mountain's four - time champion Linda Uren.

However, the Menominee Riverside golfer wasted no time in the championship match, jumping to a 1 - up lead on the first hole, and a 2 - up lead as Mrs. Uren double-bogeyed the 5th hole. A birdie three on the 6th hole by Mrs. Deming moved her to a 3-up lead, but Linda brought the match back to 2-up at the turn as Karla took a bogey on No. 9.

Karla really turned on the steam on the back nine however, sweeping the 10th, 11th and 12th holes to take a commanding 5-up lead with just six holes to play. The girls halved the 13th, and Linda got a brief respite taking the 14th hole, but the match ended as they once again halved the 15th hole.

On her way to her first U.P. title, Mrs. Deming sidetracked Rosemary Lemire and Gloria Hansley of the Escanaba Country Club, and Florence Strong of Ontonogan. Mrs. Uren dropped Jane LeVine of Ishpeming, Bev. Farrell of Gladstone and Edna Repula of Ishpeming to reach the finals.

Scoring by holes:

Deming	445	453	754	- 41
		435	454	- 25
Uren	545	454	753	- 43
		546	444	- 27

Results from other flights as follows:

Championship Flight - Consolation Winner - Bev Farrell, Gladstone. First Flight-Champion, Elaine Eairchild, Highland; Runner-Up Gloria Hans-Esc. Country Club; Consolation-Elaine Nelson, Highland. Second Flight - Champion, Lu Berglund, Esc. Country Club; Runner-Up, Harriet Fitzharris, Esc. Country Club; Consolation, Hank Orler, Norway. Third Flight - Champion, Ruth Malsack, Iron Mtn., Runner - Up, Peggy Schwartz, Menominee Riverside; Consolation, Doris Peterson, Ontonogan. Fourth Flight-Champion-Karen Norell, Ishpeming; Runner-Up, Caroline Olson, Highland; Consolation, Irene Milkovich, Highland. Fifth Flight - Champion, Martha Friets, Highland; Runner-Up, Rita Sauers Esc. Country Club; Consolation, Judy Ambeau, Highland. Sixth Flight-Champion, Adele Meese. Portage Lake; Runner - Up, Mary Walton, Highland; Consolation, Bev. Peterson, Gladstone. Seventh Flight - Champion, Marion Adams, Highland, Runner-Up, Lorraine Teal, Highland, Consolation, Mina Tallack, Soo, Ontario. Eighth Flight-Champion, Lu Barnhart, Highland; Runner-Up, Armine Sundquist, Highland; Consolation Joan Christie, Soo, Ontario. Ninth Flight-Champion, Mabel Oslund, Highland.

Frazier Seeks Quarry Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Closed door discussions are underway here concerning a proposed title fight between heavyweights Joe Frazier of Philadelphia and California's Jerry Quarry, it was disclosed Thursday.

Yancey Durham, adviser of Frazier, recognized in New York and four other states as the world champion after defeating Buster Mathis of Grand Rapids, Mich., last march, has met with Promoter George Parnasus and Jack Kent Cooke, owner of The Forum, and with representatives of the rival Olympic Boxing Club.

New York's Madison Square Garden is also a major bidder for the projected 15-round fight.

Marichal Blanks Cards; Franks Hints Retirement

By The Associated Press

Juan Marichal has finally caught up to the St. Louis Cardinals. If the rest of the San Francisco Giants can't say the same come Sept. 29 they'll be playing for a new manager next spring.

Just before Marichal blanked the Cards 3-0 Thursday night and evened his lifetime record against them at 15-15, Herman Franks confirmed reports that he would retire as manager of the Giants if they don't win the National League pennant.

Owner Horace Stoneham shouldn't have long to wait before applications start pouring in since the Giants still are in fourth place, 13 games behind St. Louis, after ending the Cards' winning streak at six games.

Elsewhere, Atlanta walloped Houston 7-1 and the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 3-0. Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

Franks said. "Change is good for everybody. I just made the statement that if we didn't win the pennant this year, then I would resign. It's that simple."

Franks qualified the announcement by adding that "more than likely" he would return if the Giants did pull out a pennant. He said he mentioned his views to Stoneham about a month ago, but added, "We won't talk about it until after the season."

Marichal, the NL's top winner, ran his record to 17-4 with a four-hitter and even drove in a run with a second-inning single. He retired 17 batters in order over one stretch until Lou Brock singled to open the ninth.

The Giants scored twice off Steve Carlton in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Hart, Hal Lanier and Marichal. They added a run in the eighth when Mays walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jesus Alou.

The Cardinals saw their league lead chopped to nine games when second-place Atlanta beat Houston behind the hitting of Tommie Aaron and Pat Jarvis' two-hit pitching.

Aaron broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded triple in the third inning off Dave Giusti and knocked in another run with a single in the eighth. Not to be outdone, big brother Hank singled home a run in the ninth.

Jarvis, 10-6, has never lost to the Astros and beat them for the fifth time. He allowed singles by Hector Torres in the first and Doug Rader in the seventh.

Seaver tied a club record with his fourth shutout of the season as the Mets hopped back over Los Angeles and Pittsburgh into seventh place. Al Jackson did it in 1962, Carl Willey in 1963 and Jerry Koosman has already done it this year.

The Mets nicked Al McBean for all their runs in the sixth inning on Bud Harrelson's single, a walk, Art Shamsky's bunt hit, a force play and singles by Jerry Grote and Phil Linz.

Chisox Defeat Orioles In 40th One Run Game

By The Associated Press

The Chicago White Sox seem obsessed by one - run games. With the season barely half over, they have played in 40 of them for a record pace.

It's a nerve-wracking ordeal, especially for the pitchers. The load keeps the bullpen sweating, and in this respect the sox are lucky to have such knuckleballers as Hoyt Wilhelm and Wilbur Wood ready for the alarm.

The Sox squeezed a 2-1 decision from the Baltimore Orioles Thursday after downing them 1-0 Wednesday. And in both games the unique combination of Wilhelm, a right-hander, and Wood, a lefty, helped them do it.

Of the 40 one-run games, the Sox have lost 22. They took 35 out of 50 one-run decisions in their 1959 pennant season. Last year in their strong bid they won 28 of 64.

The major league record for one-run game participation was set by Cincinnati with 69 in 1946—41 of them being lost, another mark.

In other American League action Thursday, Detroit stopped the Oakland Athletics 3-1 boosting the Tigers lead to seven games over idle Cleveland, while Baltimore fell to third place, 7½ games behind.

The New York Yankees stopped Washington 4-1 in the only night game and Minnesota bombed Boston 7-2 in the only other contest.

The White Sox bunched all four of their hits in the first inning off loser Dave Leonhard when Luis Aparicio doubled, Tommy Davis singled and Leon Wagner and Pete Ward each singled in runs. It was the fifth victory in six starts for the Sox under new manager Al Lopez.

Horace Clarke singled home the tie-breaking run for the Yankees in the seventh inning off losing reliever Bob Humphreys and Roy White followed with a home run. White also singled and scored the first run in the opening inning.

Stan Bahnsen worked 8 1-3 innings to raise his record to 8-6.

Minnesota exploded for five runs in the sixth inning to overcome a 2-0 defict. The big blow was a two-run double by Ted Uhlaender against loser Gary Bell, who relieved in the third inning when Jose Santiago left with a sore right elbow.

Baltimore, which along with Cleveland had closed with 6½ games of Detroit, fell back as Eddie Fisher, Wilbur Wood and Hoyt Wilhelm combined to stop the Orioles, who got theiir only run on Frank Robinson's fifth homer.

Menominee Stays Alive In Tourney

Menominee used nine runs on nine hits and eleven Powers' errors to eliminate the Powers team from the District 11 American Legion tournament being played at the Al Ness Field. Menominee will now play the loser of tonight's game between the Escanaba Cubs and the Manistique Chiefs, which is being played at 5:30, on Saturday afternoon at 3:30.

Gary Enstrom and Dave Haglund proved to be too much for Powers as the Menominee men scored six of the nine runs, Enstrom scoring four alone. Haglund collected four hits in six trips to the plate including a home run with Enstrom aboard in the sixth inning.

Powers had trouble holding on to the ball, the big factor in their downfall as they outhit Menominee, ten to nine. Menominee scored first on a walk, a single and a fielder's choice in the first inning, but Powers bounced back as Tim Moran scored all the way from second base on a ground out to the second baseman. Menominee added two in the second, two in the sixth, one in the seventh and three in the eighth.

Dan Jacques got credit for the victory as he struck out 10 and walked one. Bob Bell went all the way for Powers, striking out ten and walking five. Moran, Mark Veeser and Dennis Lundquist all had two hits for Powers.

Wilson Hurls Tigers To Victory Over A's

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers, after a brief plunge, seem to have righted themselves and resumed their earlier course that had them flying high in the American League.

After taking a commanding 9½ game lead into the All-Star break, the Tigers dropped two of three games at Minnesota and two straight to California, the first time this season they had lost two consecutive series.

Making things shakier still was the flight out of Anaheim in which their airplane plunged 500 feet to avoid hitting another plane in the traffic pattern during take off.

"We rattled around a bit," Manager Mayo Smith said, taking in both the flying and playing situation. But the spin seems over.

The Tigers steadied in Oakland and rode Earl Wilson's six-hitter to a 3-1 victory over the Athletics Thursday, giving them the series two games to one.

The victory brought Detroit's lead back to seven games over idle Cleveland while Baltimore fell to third place, 7½ games behind, by losing to the Chicago White Sox 2-1.

Smith sends Mickey Lolich, 7-5, to face Baltimore tonight in Detroit as the Tigers open a four - game weekend series against the Orioles. Starting for Baltimore will be Wally Bunker, 1-0.

Wilson, who led the league with 22 victories last season, took the Tigers in hand during his own attempt to get back on the beam after two earlier injuries kept him sidelined a month.

The hard-throwing right-hander, evening his record at 7-7, had a three-hit shutout until a double by Ramon Webster, a single by John Donaldson and an infield out got the A's a run in the eighth. But the Tigers had three runs by then.

Bill Freehan hit a sacrifice fly in the fourth inning off loser Lew Krausse, 6-8, after hits by Jim Northrup and Willie Horton. Don Wert's single, a double by Dick McAuliffe, an infield hit by Mickey Stanley and Northrup's sacrifice fly got two more in the fifth.

"I had probably the best stuff I've had in a long time," Wilson said, looking forward to another fast finish. Last year he was 9-7 at the All-Star break, closing with 13 victories, and in 1965 "I won 11 or 12 after the break."

The first time he pitched in the environs of the San Francisco Bay, Wilson recalls that the earth trembled.

The second time, he was knocked out of action for a month.

Thus his victory over the Athletics Thursday was something of an anticlimax.

In 1957, Wilson was on the roster of the minor-league San Francisco Seals and was due to pitch a night exhibition game against the Boston Red Sox.

In the afternoon, a strong earthquake hit the city and even though there were still a few rumblings at night a capacity crowd jammed Seals Stadium to see the game.

"They acted like it happened every day," Wilson said, but added, "I don't remember much. I don't remember nothing close to death."

Eleven years later, Earl returned, this time with the Tigers. Facing the Athletics in May he injured his leg and was out for a month.

As if the menace were following him, the A's went to Detroit earlier this month and hit Wilson in the leg twice in the same inning, knocking him out for a week.

"I thought I was throwing the ball good most of the time," he said, but added, "I'm not in as good shape as I'd like to be."

Bills' Players Capture Thief

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Two Buffalo Bills football players collared a petty larceny suspect early Thursday after noticing him taking license plates from an automobile, police in suburban Cheektowaga, N.Y., said.

Punter-linebacker Paul Maguire and quarterback Tom Flores were sitting on the suspect when officers arrived to take him into custody, police said.

Police said a foot and car chase began after the players noticed a man removing plates from Maguire's auto in the parking lot of a restaurant operated by Maguire and another Bills player, Tom Sestak.

JIM BEAM BOURBON— MAKING NEWS SINCE 1795

CLERMONT, KY.—173 years ago Jacob Beam started making Beam Bourbon here in Kentucky. It is still being made here today. And still by the Beams.

Along with inspired skills, the making of a Bourbon like Beam requires an unusual combination of land, climate and natural materials. And it's all here, in north central Kentucky.

There's the ancient, underlying limestone springs that supply sweet, clear water—a vital ingredient in the making of fine Bourbon.

Churches, UAW Boycott Grapes

DETROIT (AP)—The City of Detroit, the United Auto Workers Union, the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit and the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan Thursday joined a national boycott of California table grapes.

The boycott is in support of Cesar Chavez and the National Farm Workers Organization, who are striking against California table grape growers in an effort to win better wages and living conditions for vine workers.

The organization previously won partial success in a strike against wine grape growers, aided by a national boycott of products of a major grower.

Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh said he has ordered the city's commissioner of purchases and supplies to stop buying California table grapes. The city has had a standing order for three tons of grapes a year, the mayor added. He said grapes could be obtained from growers in Michigan, Ohio and New York.

The Most Rev. Walter Schoenherr, auxiliary bishop of the Detroit Archdiocese said, "We ask that the citizens of Michigan refrain from eating California table grapes and that our stores remove them from our shelves until the vine workers obtain union recognition, a living wage and decent living conditions.

Ford Endorses Gene McCarthy

DETROIT (AP) — Lifelong Republican industrialist William Clay Ford has joined the campaign to win the Democratic presidential nomination for Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

Ford, a director and largest shareholder of Ford Motor Co., announced Thursday he was supporting McCarthy and would head a group called Michigan Business and Professional Men for McCarthy.

"I've been a Republican all my life, but the crises we face demand action that transcends any traditional party loyalties," said Ford.

Ford, the younger brother of Henry Ford II, is also the owner of the Detroit Lions of the National Football League. He made his announcement at a news conference.

Ford, who has supported Michigan Gov. George Romney, a Republican, for the presidency, said he switched to McCarthy after Romney withdrew in March. McCarthy, Ford said, is the only candidate who could bring the Vietnam war to "a successful and honorable conclusion, reconcile the diverse elements in our society and revitalize our cities."

Ford Doubts Its Nixon On First

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican leader, Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan, said Thursday he does not think the Republican convention will nominate Richard Nixon on the first ballot.

Ford, who will be chairman of the convention, praised Nixon on several counts, but said that as presiding officer, it would be improper for him to foreclose any candidate.

The Senate GOP leader, Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, appeared with Ford at their weekly news conference but declined to speculate about the first-ballot chances. Rumors and gossip, he said, always have "a singular effect on candidates."

Card of Thanks

Borden

We would like to express our thanks to all who helped our family in the recent death of our husband and father, Wilfred Borden. Especially to Rev. A. Ehlinger, Mr. Donald Crawford of Boyle's Funeral Chapel, those who sent floral arrangements, cards, the donation of food, pallbearers, the drivers for the funeral and anyone whom we may have missed do we give our thanks.

The Family Of
Wilfred Borden

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the City of Escanaba, at the office of the City Clerk, Escanaba, Michigan, on or before 8:00 P.M. (CDT) August 1 1968, for the furnishing of approximately 65,000 to 75,000 gallons of gasoline, to be delivered via truck transport, f.o.b. Escanaba, Michigan. The bids will be publicly opened and read at the regular meeting of the City Council to be held on said date.

Bidders' Proposals and Specifications may be obtained from the City Clerk's office. No bid will be considered unless the Bidder's Proposal form furnished by the City is properly filled out and enclosed in an envelope plainly marked "Gasoline Bid of August 1, 1968."

A certified check, Cashier's Check, or Bidder's Bond, drawn payable without condition to the City of Escanaba, Michigan, in an amount not less than $400.00 shall be submitted with each proposal as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted, the bidder will furnish materials or services as stated in his proposal. On failure of the successful bidder to fulfill the conditions of his proposal, he shall forefeit said deposit to the City of Escanaba as liquidated damages, and the acceptance of the proposal will be contingent upon the bidder's agreeing to this proviso.

The City of Escanaba reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any irregularities in the bidding.

Donald J. Guindon
City Clerk

Good Fishing News!

Stream Levels Back To Normal

Lake levels are still high but surface temperatures are warming considerably, the Conservation Department states in its fishing report on the eastern Upper Peninsula.

Stream levels are about down to normal again, but slightly above the seasonal norm.

A new batch of mosquitos and the No-see-ums are quite pestiferous, especially in the late evening. Sand or fish flies have been very vicious along the Lake Superior shoreline area. Roads are good in the area.

Northern pike fishing is fair to good throughout. In Alger County good reports are received from Nawakwa, Pickerel and Sullivan lakes. In Chippewa County fair fishing in Potagannissing and Waiska bays, Caribou and Frenchman lakes, Shelldrake Flowage and Lower Tahquamenon River. In Luce County good catches are made in Blind Sucker Flowage and fair catches on Muskallonge, Perch, Pike and Manistique lakes. In Mackinac County fair catches are reported from Les Cheneaux Channels, Whitefish, Brevort and Garnet lakes and good catches from Millecoquin and Milakokia lakes. In Schoolcraft County good catches are being made in Manistique River, Indian Lake and fair in McDonald, Colwel, Dodge and Crooked lakes. Live bait (minnows) seems to be the preferred lure.

Fair catches of walleye are reported in Nawakwa Lake, Alger County; Munuscong Bay and Frenchman Lake, Chippewa County and Manistique Lake, Luce-Mackinac County. Good catches on Indian Lake, Schoolcraft County.

Surface temperatures are warming up the lakes thus driving the brook trout to deeper water. Fair catches are reported on the small feeder streams to the Sucker River, Alger County, Upper Biscuit, Bear and W. Branch Pine, E. Branch Tahquamenon River, Chippewa County. Little Two Heart and South Branch Two Hearted River and Peanut Lake in Luce County. Point Paterson, Black, Davenport and Millecoquin and Carp River Systems, Mackinac County and North and South Branch Stutts, Driggs, Stoner and Fox River System, Schoolcraft County.

Sport trollers were starting to pick up a few coho salmon in the 2-3 pound class off Grand Marais, Alger County.

Sport trollers had good lake trout fishing off Grand Marais, Alger County and in Pendills Bay, Chippewa County. Fish are being taken in depths less than 100 feet.

Whitefish catches are picking up behind the Carbide Plant Penstocks in the St. Mary River at the Sault. Flies, wigglers, small worms are the preferred baits.

Les Cheneaux Channels are still the hot spot for herring. Best fishing grounds last week were McKay and Mosco Bays and in the Pt. Brule area. Live mayflies are the preferred bait with artificials running second.

Vacationer Saved In Lake Mishap

A 70 - year old man vacationing in the Curtis area was rescued from drowning last week through the efforts of Floyd Preston, owner of the Anchor Resort in Curtis.

The vacationer was in a 12-foot boat on the Big Manistique Lake when rough water and wind caught the boat and overturned it. Preston, who was fishing nearby, saw the incident and went to the man's rescue.

Briefly Told

State Police ticketed Fred J. Knauf, Rte. 1, Gladstone for speeding on Wednesday.

John Morrow of North Olmstead, Ohio, arrived Wednesday to join Mrs. Morrow and Johanna who are guests of Mrs. Morrow's mother, Mrs. Elmer T. Lundstrom, 230 Arbutus Ave.

Three car-bear accidents have been reported in the Curtis area since July 4, Conservation Officer Leslie Walstrom reported. Two of the mishaps occurred in Luce and Mackinac counties and one in the Seney area. In all three accidents the bears escaped into the woods after being struck.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaPlante left Thursday for Washington, D.C. where LaPlante will be attached to the Washington regional district courier's office, after spending three weeks with his aunt, Mrs. William J. Sheahan, 223 Range St. Vic Christofferson of Lansing, a former State Department courier who served with LaPlante in Manila, Athens, Panama, and Frankfurt, visited in Manistique Tuesday and Wednesday.

In Service

Army Specialist 4 Kenneth J. Wolfe, 23, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marland L. Wolfe, and wife, Jean, live on Route 1, Manistique, was named soldier of the month of June for Headquarters Troop, 2nd Squadron of the 4th Infantry Division's 1st Cavalry near Pleiku, Vetnam, June 20. An awards and decorations clerk in the troop, Wolfe entered the Army in September 1967. He is a 1963 graduate of Manistique High School, and a 1967 graduate of Bay de Noc Community College, Escanaba, Mich. Before entering the Army, he was employed by Giddings & Lewis Machine Tool Co., Fond du Lac, Wis.

Newberry Next In Indian Lake Women's Golf

Mrs. John Kasun, Jr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson were winners in the White Elephant Tournament during Wednesday afternoon ladies play at the Indian Lake Golf and Country Club. All other women golfers received prizes according to their score.

After the seven o'clock dinner bridge was played, with awards going to Mrs. Kasun, Mrs. Barney Johnson, Mrs. Bud Malloy, and Mrs. O. F. Smits.

Ladies of the Newberry Club will be guests next week and the golf committee is in charge of pairings. Prize committee for golfing awards will be Mrs. Morris Laux and Mrs. Charles Spawr. Afternoon bridge will be arranged by Mrs. A. W. Cockram and Mrs. W. J. Sheahan with Mrs. Stanley Arnold in charge of door prizes. Mrs. Lyle Wilson heads the committee for the social hour.

Manistique golfers who wish to play for a 1:30 tee off should call Mrs. Bud Malloy.

Hostess committee for next Wednesday includes Mrs. Charles Spawr, Mrs. Helen McGlothlin and Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur. Reservations or cancellations must be made by Tuesday noon with the club steward.

Mrs. James M. Hoholik

Patti Jean Boyd Is Saturday Bride

Patti Jean Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addie Boyd, 118 Weston Ave., and James M. Hoholik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hoholik, 126 N. 4th St., were united in marriage Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. M. Scheringer officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Sandra LaFave, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Sandra Jones and Jackie Casey. Dennis White served as best man and Wesley Turan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Leonard Cournaya, of Merrill, Wis., were groomsmen. Dennis Boyd, brother of the bride, and Donald MacPhail, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Colonial Bouquets

The bride chose a floor length gown with embroidered bands of rayon organza that trimmed the redingote effect of her crescent waistline and removable mantle chapel train. Her headpiece was a small Swedish pearl crown secured by a bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and white pom poms.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of imported lemon chiffon detailed with matching venise lace daisies. They carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow daisies.

Evening Reception

Lori Mac Phail and Robin LaFleur, nieces of the bridegroom, were flower girls and wore yellow crepe floor length dresses accented with daisies on the sleeves and neckline and a bow in the back. They carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow daisies. Jimmy LaFave, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyd chose a 3-piece suit of blue lace and white accessories. Mrs. Hoholik wore a pink crepe sheath with matching lace jacket and white accessories.

A reception for 400 guests was held at the KC Hall from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Dancing from 8:30-12:30 p.m. was held with music provided by the Groleau's Orchestra. Patti Hoholik was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Janet Gregurash, presided at the coffee table and Mrs. Wesley Turan served the cake. Pauline Hoholik and Sally Boyd opened the gifts.

Following a wedding trip to Canada, the couple are residing at 329 Deer St. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Manistique High School.

Lake Northern Travels 7 Miles After Tagging

Tom Ellis of McMillan caught a 6 pound Northern in Big Manistique Lake that had traveled over seven miles since being tagged during the spring netting operation for spawn by the Conservation Department last spring. Ellis received renumeration from the State Hatchery Fund when he returned the tag to Conservation officials.

Robert Davis of Taylor also caught a tagged smallmouth bass weighing four pounds in South Manistique Lake.

Conservation officer Leslie Walstrom of Curtis reported that Bert Johnson of Midland caught a 7 pound, 6 - ounce walleye in Big Manistique Lake last week.

Children's Party Theme Brightens Birthday Fete

Each guest arriving at the Arrowhead Inn Wednesday for the surprise birthday luncheon for Mrs. Elmer T. Lundstrom, 230 Arbutus Ave., was presented with a colorful paper bow to wear in keeping with the "Children's Birthday Party" theme chosen by her daughters, Mrs. John Morrow of N. Olmstead, Ohio and Mrs. R. M. Davis, Garland, Texas, who were hostesses.

Twenty-five of Mrs. Lundstrom's friends were invited to the one o'clock luncheon and found the dining room decorated with colored streamers, balloons, and individual favors at each place setting. Summer flowers were used throughout the dining room and on the tables as centerpieces.

Tricia and Ceil Davis and Johnna Morrow assisted their mothers during the afternoon.

Nuclear Terror Deterrent Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon leaders say the United States and Soviet Union may have reached such an even balance of terror that nuclear weapons will no longer deter conventional wars—nobody will take the threat of their use seriously.

Secretary of the Air Force Harold Brown has told a Senate subcommittee that each nuclear superpower is so strong "that any all-out thermonuclear war would inflict unacceptable damage on both."

Gen. John P. McConnell, the Air Force chief of staff, also has told the subcommittee that the Soviet Union will catch the United States in the number of intercontinental missiles by the end of this year.

McConnell said the U.S.S.R. will be almost, but not quite, equal to the United States in over-all nuclear strength in 1971.

He said this may cause Soviet leaders to feel they can intervene in crisis areas of the world with less risk of U.S. opposition.

Brown said there can be no confidence in nuclear weapons serving to discourage conventional arms flareups.

Two Michigan Servicemen Die

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two more Michigan servicemen have died in fighting in Vietnam, the Defense Department announced Thursday.

Killed in action was Marine Sgt. Donald R. Bushong, son of Donald W. Bushong of Troy.

Also killed in action, but previously listed as missing in action, was Army Spec. 5 John L. Hasford Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hasford Sr., of Williamston.

Taxpayer Ends Improvement Plan

WALES, Mass. (AP) — Alex Ross spent three years repairing and improving his 12-room house on Main Street.

The result, he says, is that the town assessors increased his taxes. He really became upset, though, when he received a $35 tax bill on a former hen house which he tore down months ago.

He said the town officials told him they couldn't afford to allow the abatement.

"Apparently the secret to success in this town is to depress the value of your property," he said.

So now he has collected a pile of junk, which he has spread out over his front lawn.

New Caledonia is the only home of the flightless cagou and supports other unusual wildlife such as the notou, white-neck pigeon and giant red-furred fruit bat.

Church Events

Rev. Palmer S. Nestander of Baraga will be the Sunday guest preacher at the Zion Lutheran Church and Bethany Lutheran Church in Isabella in the absence of Rev. Ingmar Levin. Rev. Nestander is a former pastor of the Manistique parish. The Bethany service will be at 8:45 a.m. and at Zion at 10:30 a.m.
